

NAVIGARE YACHTING IN THE U.S.

VIRGIN ISLANDS

PARADISE

---

The Virgin Islands lie in the West Indies about 40 miles east of Puerto Rico. While many will plan for sailing the British Virgin Islands, don't miss out on exploring the beautiful USVIs. The region is known for its beaches with expanses of powdery white sand, as well as its seven national parks.

Sail to the nearby island of St. John which has some of the most beautiful and well-protected beaches in the world. The island is a favorite destination thanks to its lush surroundings, national park and clear waters brimming with turtles and rays.

Popular choices for those exploring by boat include Honeymoon Beach and the beaches along Caneel Bay, Oppenheimer Beach, Maho Beach in Francis Bay, Salt Pond and Lameshur. Leinster Bay and Watermelon Cay offer awesome opportunities for snorkeling too with abundant coral.
